QU2

QU2 is one of the newest Amels 60 yachts available for charter, delivered in 2026 and bringing a fresh perspective to contemporary superyacht living. Combining Tim Heywood's unmistakable exterior design with Winch Design's award-winning interiors, she offers an experience inspired by the natural beauty, warmth and relaxed spirit of the South Pacific.

Rather than embracing the formality traditionally associated with large superyachts, QU2 is built around the concept of barefoot luxury - a lifestyle where understated elegance, natural materials and effortless comfort take centre stage. Warm timber, organic textures, handcrafted details and soft coastal tones create interiors that feel less like a yacht and more like an exclusive private island retreat. Every space designed by Winch Design draws inspiration from a different element of the Pacific, from white-sand beaches and crystal-clear lagoons to lush tropical forests and traditional island architecture. While each deck has its own distinct character, they are all united by a shared sense of calm, balance and connection to nature.

Accommodation is provided for up to 12 guests in six beautifully appointed cabins, including a full-beam owner's suite on the main deck. Floor-to-ceiling glazing, light-filled interiors and an intuitive layout create an atmosphere where comfort feels effortless rather than extravagant, allowing guests to immediately feel at home. The heart of life on board is the exceptional beach club, where relaxation, wellness and time on the water come together in one beautifully designed space. A generous swim platform, sauna, waterside bar and comfortable lounge areas create the atmosphere of a private luxury resort, encouraging guests to spend much of the day just steps from the sea. Everything about QU2 has been designed around open-air living and an unhurried pace. Morning swims in calm ancho...
